ST. GEORGE'S SOCIETY.

PRELIMINARY STEPS.

Origin.

IN the autumn of the year 1835, the formation of a Society, under the above title, to be open to all persons of English origin, residing in Quebec and its neighbourhood, suggested itself to several Englishmen, in this City, and it was proposed, by them, to call a Meeting of their Countrymen, and persons of English descent, to devise means for carrying the plan into operation. The gentlemen, whose names appear below, were applied to, who immediately gave their signatures to the requisition (but the number might have been greatly increased had it been deemed necessary for the furtherance of the cause) and sanctioned the following advertisement, which appeared on the 13th and 14th October, in the Old Quebec Gazette and in the Quebec Mercury, Newspapers :—

“ST. GEORGE'S SOCIETY.

That the Committee be now chosen by ballot.

The ballot then took place, and the following gentlemen were chosen of the Committee :—

Messrs. C. F. Aylwin, LeMesurier, J. H. Kerr, Wm. Kemble, John Bonner, J. C. Fisher and J. Dyde.

It was then moved by Mr. Froste, seconded by Mr. Dyde.

Mr. LeMesurier moved, seconded by Mr. Symes,

That the thanks of the Meeting be given to the Chairman for his conduct in the Chair. The Meeting then adjourned.

Meeting,
20th Novr.
1835.

Circumstances having prevented the Committee from preparing the Rules and Regulations, for the government of the Society, previous to the 13th November, the Meeting was further adjourned to Friday, the 20th November, when it took place at the Albion Hotel; William Price, Esquire, was called to the Chair, and Wm. Kemble, Esquire, was requested to act as Secretary. The Chairman, after stating that the Committee which had at the previous Meeting been appointed to draw up Rules and Regulations for the government of the Society, had now completed that task, proposed "That the Chairman of the Committee do now read the Report."

Which being unanimously assented to, C. F. Aylwin, Esquire, Chairman of the Committee, read the Preamble which follows, and which was, with one voice, agreed to.

The Chairman then proposed the Articles which had been drawn up by the Committee, as the Standing Rules of the Society, by reading each Article and taking the sense of the Meeting thereon. CONSTITUTION
OF THE
SAINT GEORGE'S SOCIETY
QUEBEC.

Preamble, No sooner have natives of Great Britain and Ireland established themselves in the distant Colonies of the Empire, or in Foreign States, then they have found it imperative to unite in Friendly Societies, for the purpose of affording relief and advice to their less fortunate countrymen, whom circumstances have led to the same destination, but who, from misfortune and sickness, require the aid of the benevolent.

Societies of this description have been long established in various parts of Europe—in our Indian Territories—in the North American Colonies, and in all the principal Cities of the United States. In New York, a St. Andrew's Society was formed as early as 1756, and a St. George's Society in 1786, the former of which now possesses a very considerable capital.

The peculiar circumstances of the Colony in which we live, and the number of Emigrants who annually arrive, alike ignorant of the language of the mass of the Inhabitants, and unaccustomed to the climate, render it extremely desirable to institute in this City a Society on a permanent basis, and for beneficial purposes—without political objects, but of which loyalty and good feeling to all classes shall be the prevailing features.

It is, therefore, proposed to form a Society to be called "The St. George's Society of Quebec," the general objects of which shall be as follows, viz:—

1. To afford pecuniary aid to such English and Welsh Emigrants, and their descendants, as shall be in imminent need and found deserving and as shall appear on examination not to be fairly entitled to assistance from the Quebec Emigrant Society, the Church Funds, or other charitable source.

2. To comfort and relieve the sick, aged, and infirm of that descent.

3. To assist orphans and other destitute children, and to place them out as servants or apprentices when practicable.

4. To procure passages home, or to their friends in these Provinces, for widows and children in certain cases.

5. To procure work for able bodied persons with families.

6. To assist individuals in discovering their relations or connexions on this continent.

7. To afford assistance toward the decent burial of destitute persons of English and Welsh descent.

8. To give advice to Emigrants, to prevent their being imposed on, and generally to forward their views.

9. To keep a registration of families in Quebec and the vicinity, of English and Welsh descent occupying houses and farms.

10. To reward good and deserving servants.

11. Generally to do all that a Benevolent Society ought of right to do.

Such being the local and benevolent objects of the St. George's Society of Quebec, it will equally be the duty of the Members to preserve and hand down gratifying recollections of their native country. While they promote and cherish social and friendly intercourse with their fellow-subjects of every origin, they will not cease to venerate the land of their forefathers; and to hold up at their periodical meeting the illustrious characters to whom it has given birth, as subjects of national pride and emulation. They will cherish as far as in them lies among their descendants, veneration and attachment towards the Institutions of the Mother Country, and with such principles, and founded as this Institution will be, on the basis of benevolence and love of country—charity and good will to all—they confidently rely that its course will be beneficial, and its prosperity permanent and increasing.
